

Draw or paint A posy fit for a Queen

The competition

Draw or paint a bunch of flowers that you think Queen Elizabeth II would enjoy - to celebrate her 70 years on the throne.

Use any medium. Maximum size: A3

An optional extra

Describe in no more than 400 words why you chose those flowers. Maybe they were in the Queen's coronation bouquet, or they are flowers named after the Queen; perhaps you want to design a bouquet of wildflowers or varieties associated with Norfolk.

Once the entry is completed, please bring them back into school with the Pupil's name, School and year group on the back of the entry.

Deadline to return is Monday 16th May 2022

Draw or paint
A posy fit for a Queen
and win your school £500

To celebrate Her Majesty the Queen's Platinum Jubilee the Norfolk Gardens Trust is holding an exciting schools' competition to find the perfect picture of a posy to display at the Royal Norfolk Show.

The Lady Dannatt, Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Norfolk, will judge the competition and present the prizes

Norfolk
Gardens Trust

